

Have you heard the NEWS

"There's Good Rocking Tonight"

News letter for members of the Official Elvis Presley Fan Club, Elvis-Aberdeen.

Elvis Forever at Hyde Park

I am still waiting to hear from Elvis Aberdeen fans who attended this event what their views were but it seemed to go well. Hopefully we will actually get to see it at some point instead of just listening to it.

Imelda May was very good singing 'My Baby Left Me/That's Allright Mama', and I thought that Marti Pellow did a decent enough version of 'I Just Can't Help Believing'. Could be I am biased on that song as I love it!

The other highlights included Craig David with 'Are You Lonesome Tonight', Suzi Quattro performing with the TCB band on 'All Shook Up' and 'Johnny B Goode' as well as Mica Paris performing 'I've Lost You'.

The highlight of the evening was of course Elvis singing 'The Wonder of You' with the TCB Band in the same way as the Elvis In Concert shows. It seemed to certainly cap a wonderful event for those who were lucky enough to attend.

Perhaps we will be lucky enough to get a better review from one of the attendees from our club.

Volunteers anyone?

Inside this issue:

Elvis Forever	1
Elvis-Mercedes	1
Elvis Trivia	1
Lisa Marie	2
Honeymoon Hideaway	2
Contact Details	2

Elvis Trivia

'Elvis Presley Day' was proclaimed in Tupelo on September 26,1956. Elvis returned home to perform two shows at the Mississippi-Alabama Fair & Dairy Show, the same fair at which he had performed at age 10. Nearly 22,000 fans attended Elvis' evening performance, more than the entire population of Tupelo.

Elvis Mercedes up for Auction

This Mercedes-Benz was once owned by Elvis Presley and is expected to go under the hammer at Bonhams in Surrey in December. The 1969 car is anticipated to sell for £200,000.

Lisa Marie Moves to the UK

Lisa Marie Presley and her family have arrived in England to start a new life after buying a £8million stately home. Elvis's daughter has made no secret of her disdain for LA and has finally made good on her promise to move to the United Kingdom. The singer flew into Heathrow in August with her fourth husband Michael Lockwood, 42, and their eighteen-month-old twin girls Harper and Finley. The couple are understood to have purchased a mansion near Tunbridge Wells, Kent, which was being heavily guarded with staff patrolling on quad bikes ahead of their arrival. Her new home, set on 90 acres, boasts 11 bedrooms, an indoor pool and sauna and a cinema. It is understood constant gossip surrounding her ex-husband Michael Jackson helped form Presley's decision to flee America. She also said recently that LA had 'gotten dramatically worse in the last five or six years, even more shallow if that's even possible.' Of her love for Britain, she explained: 'We have found the quality of life so much more enriching and fulfilling. 'The civility, the culture, the people and its beauty have reawakened me and have smoothed out some of my bleak and jagged views about people and life.' She added: 'I can honestly say that I am the only person who came to England for the weather. I love the cold and the rain. We have fallen in love with the UK and it is our hope to live here some day.' Presley sold her three acre mansion in the Hidden Hills, California, for more than £6million in order to purchase her UK home. On the picture, you see the couple of one of the last pictures in LA, while doing some last-minute shopping. The second picture shows them arriving in London, protecting the twins from the press.

Source: Daily Mail

Rent Elvis' Honeymoon Home in California for $1,500 per night—1350 Ladera Circle

The Southern California desert resort town of Palm Springs was once home to Elvis Presley, and it is here that he spent a lot of time with Priscilla and the guys about two hours drive from Los Angeles. There are many former residences of the rich and famous in Palm Springs including Marilyn Monroe, Elizabeth Taylor and Lucille Ball, however it is the former home of Elvis Presley that is attracting much interest as it can now be rented at a modest $1,500 per night.

The five-bedroomed space age house on stilts is where the Presley's spent their 1967 honeymoon and it's vintage furniture, circular living room and stone walls make you feel as though you have travelled back in time to those wonderful days in the sixties.

Wouldn't we all love the opportunity to stay there just even for one night...

Source: elvismatters.com

Contact info

By email: aberdeen@elvis-a-presley.com

Next Dance: Friday 1st October